

I think it is time for a service like X-M Radio. There is nowhere else that offers such a wide selection of commercial free music, traffic and weather. FCC, please , let's keep the airwaves a public domain. There should be freedom of choice. If AM and FM cannot provide it, well so be it... LONG LIVE XM RADIO!
Joe Colarusso, Spring, Tx.